COUNTRY

Set up on high ground within the village of Udimore, which is located on the edges of the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, has two public houses, farm shop, a community hall and parish church. From the village there are numerous walks across open countryside in the Brede and Tillingham valleys. 3 miles to the east is the Ancient Town and Cinque Port of Rye, renowned for its fine period architecture. As well as its charm and history, the town has a comprehensive range of shopping facilities and an active local community, with the arts being strongly represented; Rye Festival is held annually. From the town there are local train services to Eastbourne and to Ashford, from where there are high speed connections to London St Pancras (37 minutes). Within a 15 mile radius are sporting facilities which include a leisure centre with pool, lawn tennis club, sailing at Rye Harbour and numerous golf courses as well as the renowned Camber Sands beach.

Tibbs Farmhouse is an early 17th century red brick and tile hung property in an elevated position with far distant rural views over Tillingham Valley. This characterful Grade II listed property offers accommodation over three floors as well as generous outbuildings and grounds. Note: The property and interior of the house featured prominently as a French farmhouse in the 1958 film Dunkirk starring John Mills.
